Re: First Directive for Criminal Defendants on Bond in District Court.

In the interest of the safety and welfare of the public, attorneys, defendants, and courthouse staff, the 81st and 218th County Civil District Courts have made the following decisions regarding the criminal defendants on bond in Atascosa, Frio, Karnes, La Salle and Wilson Counties.

Beginning Monday, March 23, 2020, personal appearance at criminal dockets will be limited to defendants who are in custody. Dockets for defendants who have been released on bond are suspended. Defendants released on bond, who have completed and filed with the District Clerk the ACKNOWWLEDGEMENT OF SUSPENSION OF CRIMINAL DOCKETS DUE TO COVID-19 AND RESPONSIBILITY TO KEEP COURT INFORMED OF ADDRESS form, found below, need not personally appear at previously scheduled dockets.

This directive will remain in effect until further orders are made, or until 30 days the termination of the state of disaster declared by the Governor in response to COVID-19, whichever comes first. Visit https://81-218.txcourts.gov/ for the latest updates.

The District Judges retain the inherent discretion to add or remove a case from the criminal dockets. The District Judges expect that a system will shortly be in place to allow criminal matters to be heard by teleconference. This Directive does not suspend a defendant's duty to appear at a teleconference hearing, or trial.

To the extent allowed by the Texas Supreme Court's and Texas Court of Criminal Appeal's First Emergency Order Regarding the COVID-19 State of Disaster, or subsequent orders, all deadlines and procedures for criminal defendants released on bond, whether prescribed by statute, rule, or order, are stayed, until further order, for a period ending not later than 30 days after the Governor's state of disaster has been lifted, except to the extent that, after notice and hearing, the Court lifts the stay in individual cases.

If a party, attorney, staff member, witness or spectator, exhibits any COVID-19 symptoms, including fever, coughing, or sneezing, or has a particularized reason to believe they have been exposed to COVID-19, the Court ORDERS them to NOT APPEAR, but notify the Court Coordinator at 830-769-3750, or coordinator@81-218.txcourts.gov, for rescheduling.
