Today, the Wilson County Commissioners Court held an emergency meeting to discuss immediate changes to the public offices due to the ongoing Pandemic. Effective immediately the following changes will take place:

Tax Office - The Tax Office Lobby will be closed until further notice. In-person business can still be done through the drive thru ONLY.

Library - The Library will be closed to the public until further notice. You may still call the Library to check out and return books and it will be handled on a Curbside basis. More information regarding the library will be posted as it becomes available.

Veterans Service Office - The Veterans Service Office will be closed to the public until further notice. You may still call the office at 830-393-7376 and they will handle all business over the phone and via email.

Wilson County Expo Center - The Wilson County Expo Center will be closed through the month of April. If more time is needed, Commissioners Court will make that decision at a later date. Calls will be made to those renters that have rentals through the month of April to make other arrangements.

As more information becomes available on the other public offices not mentioned, it will be posted here and on the Wilson County website. Thank you for your cooperation during this emergent time.
